VOLUME XLV. NUMBER 4

Is it a fact that Sunset Rock on the Arcadia Heights was first named First Love Rock.?

ILLINOIS is a nice state. True it has its Lorimers, its subservient Judges and its Jackpot Statesmen; but the common-run people seem easy-going, quiet and submissive.

They hope to thoroughly enjoy their exercises and to enter upon their drills with energy. They have adopted the American boy scout's motto: "A kind turn to somebody every day."

The 4th passed off very warmly in Arcadia and was a strenuous day for some of us who have exofficio duties.

Miss Jessie Holloman was a vistor in Arcadia on the 4th. There were some rumors of real state deals in town last week. Mr. Sellinger and Rev. Aspley are said to have bought the property occupied by Mr. Eldracker.

Mrs. Plant has rented her residence on College street to Mrs. Fennimore, who will use it as an annex to the Arcadia Hotel.
